

PARENT INFORMATION FOR NUTCRACKER

1. If your child is in any of the following dances, they will be in the choir room:
 - a. party scene (party girl, party boy)
 - b. fight scene (soldiers, horses, dolls, mice)
 - c. snow scene (snow bunnies, forest sprites)
 - d. palace scene (angels, palace dancers, princesses)
 - e. variations (gingersnaps, sheep)
2. Children need to be in their dance clothes, have their stage make up on, and have their hair done before entering the choir room. (See Shelly for stage make up requirements)
3. All children must check in at the door before every rehearsal and show, for attendance records.
4. Children may not leave the choir room without parental supervision or permission.
5. Children may have snacks before the show. All snacks must be eaten in the hallway. No food or drink is allowed to be eaten in the choir room. Children are also not allowed to eat in their costumes.
6. Once children are done performing, they may be picked up in the choir room. They must check out. This is for security purposes to make sure every child is returned to their family member.

LET'S HAVE A GREAT SHOW!
